

~~Re~~ Re letter of Nov 20, 1962

There will be no mission of Cuba not only by the US but also by other countries of the West Hemisphere. - This is the essence of airport.

The Air personnel who were servicing the rocket installations have also been withdrawn

Will remove 16-200 within a month

We are prepared to remove simultaneously all Air personnel connected with the servicing of these planes

Your planes still continue to fly over Cuban territory.

We presume we have grounds to suspect or suspicion in standing on your part also in the questions of the flights of Air planes over Cuba.

Actual circumstances of such flights would be a major step forward

Yes, we really agree to the aspect that we will refer. would ascertain the removal of rocket weapons
X But only with the consent of Cuba.

Sure you were in a position where we had not promised to - we did something more than right to

As - from was at proper time to stop, not an order personnel who had something to do with guarding the installations. W

X Where did we give an consent to personnel experienced?
Approves proposal of A T on A A presence in Canada.
